Dreamland features to-day an extremely interesting Selig film "An Indian Wife's Devotion." It well depicts the great will power of the Indian when aroused. Another film of merit is "The Keeper of the Light," a wild ocean picture with many a thrilling moment in it. Gilbertson's orchestra of four pieces, including a tramp drummer, will play there to-night.

"The Burning of Rome" is said by competent critics to be one of the best motion pictures ever produced. The film shows it to-day and to-morrow. It is very realistic and is true to historical facts. The coloring is good, and the effect of the picture on an audience is attention-compelling from the start. The song "Carmen" is singing well to-day.

It is hoped that no one will pass the kettle by without giving something to so worthy a cause.

At the annual business meeting of the retail clerks' union, held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. A. Wallace; delegate to the Central Labor union, W. A. Boutwell. Harley J. Houghton was elected delegate to the New England convention of the R. C. I. P. A., to be held in Boston, January 9.

F. R. Stewart of Mannington, West Virginia, chairman of the executive committee of the National Retail Dealers' association, and F. M. Schilling of Madison, Wisconsin, a member of the executive committee of the N. R. M. D., who were in the city to attend the Barre granite manufacturers' banquet, left this noon for their homes. Mr. Stewart has been in the retail business for 42 years. It had been eight years since he was in Barre, and Mr. Schilling had not been here for about 16 years. Both men were surprised at the growth of the city and the granite industry since their last visit.

The feature picture at the Comique to-day is really a very novel picture, entitled, "The Heart of a Clown." One thing alone that makes the picture very interesting is that it is entirely different from all other pictures. We see a great circus arrive, just as it did in years gone by, overland and in great wagons. As the film is unrolled, we witness a varied and real circus performance, the clown, as usual, being the cause of the hilarity. There are acceptable turns done by clever performers, wonderful tricks done by well trained animals, and, in fact, we see a small edition of a circus in full swing, which is certainly something new to moving pictures.
